About the Role

Beatson Cancer Charity is looking for an experienced and empathetic Group Support Facilitator to join our small team; the Facilitator will work with our psychologist to deliver support. This will be delivered within an Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) and person-centered framework.

Key responsibilities include:

- Conducting triage and assessment of new referrals.
- Undertaking risk assessments and making appropriate onward referrals.
- Supporting the delivery of ACT-based group support programmes.
- Providing pre and post-group psychosocial support and coaching.
- Using validated assessment tools to plan and evaluate support.
- Maintaining accurate records and outcome data.
- Building relationships with stakeholders and contributing to service development.

Benefits

- 40 days annual leave pro rata, inclusive of public holidays.
- Generous pension scheme with 7% employer and 3% employee contributions, pro rata.
- Supportive and collaborative working culture.
- Access to an Employee Assistance Programme providing 24/7 confidential wellbeing, financial and legal support.

About You

You will be a compassionate professional with experience supporting individuals and families affected by long-term health conditions and emotional distress. You will be educated to a degree level or equivalent within a relevant field (Health, Psychology, AHP, Nursing, Social Sciences, Counselling, CBT) and possess excellent communication, assessment and relationship-building skills. Experience in cancer care, ACT-based approaches, or group facilitation would be advantageous.

About Beatson Cancer Charity
